Application Deadline:

May 28, 2010

Application Process

Please send a letter of interest, a letter of support from your principal or department chair, and a completed application (available at: http://www.alba-valb.org/summer-institute) by May 28, 2010 to:

Dennis Holt, Social Studies Supervisor
School District of Hillsborough County
901 E. Kennedy Blvd
Tampa, FL 33602

fax: 813-272-4031
dennis.holt@sdhc.k12.fl.us

Acceptance notifications will be sent by e-mail by mid- June 2010

This seminar is sponsored by the Abraham Lincoln Brigade Archives, the Centro Asturiano de Tampa and the University of South Florida Department of History and is made possible through the generous support of the Puffin Foundation.

High school social studies teachers are invited to apply. This seminar is open to public high school teachers in Hillsborough County.

To request additional information contact:

Fraser Ottanelli
(ottanelli@usf.edu)
Sherman Dorn
(dorn@usf.edu)
Robert Alicea
(ralicea@usf.edu)

University of South Florida
4202 East. Fowler Avenue
Tampa, Florida 33620
Phone: 813-974-6209

*This seminar is sponsored by the Abraham Lincoln Brigade Archives (ALBA). Any views, findings, conclusions, or recommendations expressed in this program do not necessarily reflect those of ALBA, but there are some very interesting, opinionated people on the ALBA board, and if you fail to leave the workshop without considering a range of views about history of the Spanish Civil War and its relationship to U.S. history, they will be upset with us.

Abraham Lincoln Brigade Archives
Second Summer Teachers' Institute

La Retaguardia de Tampa

The Spanish Civil War and its impact on Florida and U.S. History

USF Department of History, in collaboration with the Abraham Lincoln Brigade Archives, Centro Asturiano de Tampa, and the Puffin Foundation.

www.alba-valb.org

Participant Benefits

Social Studies Content

Acquire knowledge and skills from experts in U.S. and world history, including:
- Spanish Civil War
- U.S. involvement
- U.S. social history
- Origins of World War II
- Florida history

Stipend

Receive $500 upon completion and submission of lesson plans and sample Documents Based Questions (DBQ's) incorporating information from the summer institute

Materials

Receive readings, teaching resources, and curriculum materials

Credit

Earn Teacher Education Credit through SDHC Secondary Education (Social Studies) Department

Networking

Experience a great opportunity to meet other educators with an interest in the Spanish Civil War and Tampa history

Applying

Who can participate?

High school (grades 9-12) history and related-subject teachers with a high level of motivation, intellectual curiosity, and a strong commitment to fully participate in the summer workshop.

Open to all high school social studies teachers in Hillsborough County interested in incorporating content about the Spanish Civil War into their curriculum

What is the cost?

Participants are responsible only for transportation to and from the seminars, and parking. There is no registration or application fee

Where will the institute take place?

At the University of South Florida's Tampa campus, 4202 E. Fowler Avenue, and in Centro Asturiano in Ybor City

When will the Summer Seminar take place?

July 19— 23, 2010 (one week)
Each day, 9:00am-12:00pm, 1:00pm-4:00pm

How do I apply?

Send a completed application (available at http://www.alba-valb.org/summer-institute) to Dennis Holt. by May 28, 2010

Commitment and Expectations

Educators will:

- Participate in and complete a one-week seminar

- Prepare for workshop by completing assigned reading

- Create lesson plans and Document Based Questions that incorporate information and skills acquired from the institute

- Implement the unit plan into their curriculum

- Disseminate the summer institute information with their colleagues at their home schools

- Assist in evaluating the institute